PRIVACY NOTE

We inform you that, in accordance with the current data protection regulations and within the framework of the project “UPWELLING – Unlocking Potential for Workforce Excellence, Leadership, and Innovation in the Next-Gen Blue Economy”, your personal data will be processed by us in our capacity as data controller.

Your data will be processed for the purpose of creating a map of relevant stakeholders in the blue economy sector in the Atlantic region. The legal basis for processing your data is your freely given consent, which you may withdraw at any time. Such withdrawal will not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out prior to the withdrawal of consent. The data provided will be processed by the Asociación de empresas tecnológicas Innovalia, with its registered office at Calle Santiago Cuadrado 30, 38006 Santa Cruz de Tenerife, Spain, and tax identification number G95210910.

Please note that your data may also be disclosed to public authorities and bodies for the purpose of justifying grants and the allocation of public funds, as well as where there is a legal obligation to do so.

Your data will be deleted once you notify us of your withdrawal and/or once the legally required retention periods have expired. International data transfers may be carried out to entities that have demonstrated compliance with an adequate level of protection and guarantees in accordance with the requirements set out in the applicable data protection legislation, such as the European General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), or where there is a legal basis permitting such international transfers.

You may exercise your rights of access, rectification, erasure, restriction of processing, objection, and data portability by contacting the Asociación de empresas tecnológicas Innovalia at the following email address: data_protection@innovalia.org. You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Regional Data Protection Agency if you consider that your rights have been infringed.
